Early Report Seen In Warren Probe

CPYRGHT

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., April 15 (AP).—Allen Dulles says the Warren Commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy probably will make its report within the next two or three months.

Mr. Dulles, a member of the commission and former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, said the commission's findings should be made public before political campaigns reach their heights preceding the fall elections.

Mr. Dulles held a news conference prior to speaking at a chamber of commerce meeting.

He declined to comment on specific details of the commission's work, but said there would be no major change in reports already released.
